

Phoenix Rod & Gun Club

Membership Information

Potential Member! Thank you for your interest in PRGC. This club, founded in 1937, has long been known as the center of marksmanship excellence and expertise in the Phoenix area. Located where 7th Avenue meets the base of South Mountain Park, adjacent to the Phoenix Police Academy.

To ensure safe and legal range operation and encourage dedicated shooters to join our club we have a few simple membership requirements.

Prospective members joining the club will pay a $75.00 initiation fee plus their membership dues. This is your investment into everything this club has bought and built over the past 80 years.

Memberships are good from September 1st through August 31st. It is the Member's responsibility to renew their membership annually before the end of the Club's fiscal year. Membership and shooting opportunities are available to those eligible to use firearms without regard to, race, religion, and/or gender.

Every club member:

- Must be legally permitted to own firearms per the questions on the ATF Form 4473.
- Will sign an oath of non-violence and release of liability (on the application form).
- Read and understand PRGC rules and policies posted on our website
- Agree to obey the posted signs, range rules and range commands.
- Be knowledgeable in safe firearms handling and range etiquette.

New member applicants will, upon fee payment, be:

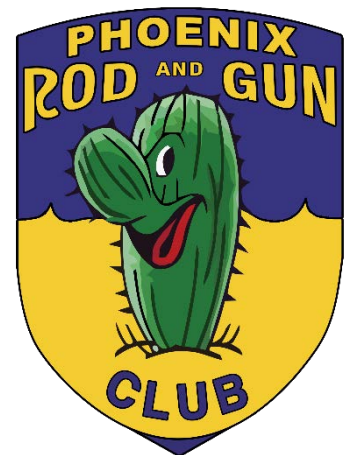

- Considered for approval by the Membership Secretary.
- Given a range tour and basic safety briefing.

Upon approval for membership, issued a membership card and gate code. Club members have daily range access from 7am to Sundown, matches and events have priority over members and are posted on the club website. All matches are open to the public to participate for a match fee. Each member can bring guest under supervision.
